John Gilomen admits focusing on Abbey is a way to avoid dealing with his grief over his best friend's death, but Abbey's a nice woman. His unrepentant SAM act at the BDSM club isn't the real him, just a way to blow off stress. He's always held feelings for Abbey, and he won't screw up his chance to finally show her.

But when life-threatening complications arise, John steps in and takes charge. Now Abbey has to decide what's more important - what everyone else thinks, or what her heart tells her about the man whose Dominant side only she has seen.
