Carter did it. He knew from the moment that trigger was pulled he would regret that decision he had made. Although successful, his failures as a leader were starting to catch up with him. Tensions are starting to flare between Carter and Tracy leaving one contemplating on betrayal. Ayanna's only high was Carter in the midst of finding out who left her family member slain without reason. Love calls the two street crossed lovers and they soon find that they're in over their head. Loved ones begin taking sides leaving Carter and Ayanna struggling to make a decision as their love is caught in the middle. But when Ayanna finds out the truth, she'd forced to act on it causing her more grief than pleasure. The deceitful relationships amongst this small circle of distant strangers come to a close as the secrets become explosive hurting almost everyone. Carter's decision may prove karma has no respect of person but when he tries to right his wrongs it may be too late. Bury yourself into this finale!
