A woman in her late twenties, 29- years-old Jackie and her boyfriend George were on their way home from a party, a wedding of their colleagues one night, everything was alright, they were enjoying the way back singing when suddenly their car stopped in the middle of a road inside the woods, George stepped out of his car to see what was wrong and he found out that it ran out of gas. It was passed midnight around two in the morning and Jackie as together with her boyfriend were scared to be alone completely in the middle of nowhere inside the dark woods.

The man had to find an outlet and decided to walk and see if he could find a close petrol station to get gas, he assured his girlfriend, saying comfortingly to her that she had to stay inside the car and he asked her not to worry, and add that he would be right back and that he wouldn't come back without help, he asked her to lock the doors and the windows and get some sleep until he would come back help.

She did as he asked and locked all the doors then sat waiting for George to come back. Few hours passed and the boyfriend didn't show up, Jackie started to worry and she was about to go out when suddenly, she sees a shadow falling on her lap. She raised her eyes to look up and see, at the beginning, she thought that it was her boyfriend but it wasn't him; it was rather a weird man wearing a mask. And the stranger was swinging something in his left hand, the when he glued his face to the window rising his left hand, Jackie realized that he was holding her boyfriend's head. She started screaming and yelling then closed her eyes from the horrific scene and when she opened her eyes once more, the man wasn't there and Jackie started looking for an outlet except that she didn't have the keys, she had to break the window's glass and she hurt her hand while going out of the window, she got back inside the car, called the policemen and told them about what happened but they thought she was crazy and after hanging up the phone, she couldn't hear any noise and thought that man disappeared but when she was trying to calm down, she saw that man again from the window, he was dangling the keys in his hand, and they were the car keys, and only then the horror began when Jackie tried to escape but the man grabbed her from her hair to find after a short time that her body was buried in a hole in the ground and only her head was over the soil, she looks around to see that man in front of her eyes, when he said game over, the game rather began.
