My Life Through Poetry (Poetry of my life Book 1) mary holland
I dedicate this book to my sister Dorthy who I admired,and loved as she fought her illness with dignaity to the end. My life through poetry,will make you laugh,cry,and reminsice of days gone by.

I had a happy childhood,surounded with fun and laughter,with the odd scrape here and there,the fun we had riding on steam trains,they were days of innocents.

My teens was a whole new world opening before me,but not untill I was 17,before that I would play tag,skipping,we were still children then.

Then in my twenties I had a son,he was a joy never any problem,except for spiders.....

As time went on I never,never,thought I would have so much joy,pain,and a deep emptyness that is with me always.

Along came Tetley my 9 month old shizu tuz,what anticts he gets up to and how he makes me laugh,he is quite famous in and around where we live,from barking barking,to being so cute,at the park he knows alot of people who call to him,and he struts his stuff,you will laugh alot about him I promise.....

So come with me and see with my poems,alot of laughter,joy,pain.....and Tetley
