Something About Mary: From Girl About Town to Crown Princess Emma Tom
The true story of how an ordinary Aussie girl-about-town became Crown Princess Mary of Denmark. A delicious, witty and intelligent look at the making of an Australian princess by one of the country's most original writers. Including full-colour illustrations of Mary's lavish lifestyle and lifestyle accessories (more castles, designer outfits and antique bling than you could poke a stick at) the book chronicles Mary's amazing transformation into one of the world's most photographed and glamorous women. Includes pics of the new baby prince.
