How to Have a Merry Little Christmas: Family Recipes and Traditions Collected by Robin Deffendall
Robin Deffendall
This book is a long overdue gift for the Deffendall family. Suddenly, it seems, our family has grown older and moved apart. We've lost some important members. When these things happen it can be hard to maintain the traditions that are so important, especially at the holiday season. The sights and sounds, and especially the smells of savory foods and the sweet desserts that are such an important part of the season, bring forward the memories of family, love and togetherness. These memories are why I love Christmas and Thanksgiving so much. It's important to continue these traditions. So, here collected are as many of the recipes and traditions as I could find. I've also included pictures of the ornaments from the family tree that were made by family members over the years.
