Our Bodies Ourselves for the New Century Boston Womens Health
This book was written during the "Feminist" revolution with the goal of women "owning" their own bodies - rather that being "objects" used as playthings of men. Surprisingly women had not objected to this behavior sooner - thus colluding in their own oppression. Next came a gay revolution and seeking for civil liberties ... which are still not totally free. One can't help wondering if and when men might seek their liberty.
