The Truth about Cancer and its Prevention Apollo John Pampallis
You have been programmed for cancer and funnelled to fraudulent cures! Here's the proof, as well as how to free yourself and live the healthy life you were meant to have. Book is based on no less than the works of 9 nobel prizes and hundreds of top researchers. This book is unique in that it covers all causes of cancer, from the most obvious to the least expected, which in many cases are the primary causes and conveniently overlooked. As we all have a fifty percent chance of contracting cancer, and most likely dying a most horrendous death through it, do we not owe it to ourselves and our loved ones to stop passively taking (often cancer causing) tests but ensure that we are not vulnerable in the first place, and if we have been struck, to empower ourselves to transcend it? Whilst drawing on top scientific findings (by truly independent researchers, many of whom were killed), the book is very reader friendly, challenging, and even challenges you to practical exercises which are quick and easy to do, need no equipment and will definitely greatly enhance, or even save your life. The book has over 50 pages of instantly clickable references to back up all claims, links to useful products and access to a lot more resources, nearly all of which are free.
