Two Sieges of Rhodes,1480-1522 Eric Brockman
The Hospitallers were the last of the crusaders. They were also the last of the Europeans, and they differed from their contemporaries and from many of us in three notable respects. They put loyalty to their faith and to their Order ablove all other loyalties. They welcomed death as a gateway to eternal life, and they sought valiantly to sustain the hope that Europe might yet lead and convert the world.
