Catch a Falling Star Leah Downing
As a very complicated couple makes it to the red carpets of Hollywood, destructive forces continually try to tear them apart.

Almost a year after federal investigator Lauren St. Germain was exonerated from charges of assisting in a homeland terrorist attack, doubts still exist with regards to her innocence. In order to move on from her highly publicized trial, she accepts the position as a Hollywood "Yoga Trainer" for a hugely successful company owned by her closest confidant from college.

While navigating her way through the glamorous (but often snarky) yoga scene, Lauren catches the eye of up-and-coming film star, James Bayer. After a steamy night together on a luxury cruise off the coast of Canada, they impulsively embark on a rugged journey through the icy Inuit Tundra guided by a tribal dog sledding outfit. It is there, under the prophetic Northern Lights, that Lauren discovers she is the target of a dark supernatural threat.

Back in the cutthroat world of the entertainment business, others come into play who covet the strong connection between Lauren and James. These individuals will stop at nothing to sabotage their relationship. Threats and intrusive tactics made by both a friend to Lauren and her former boyfriend take a hard toll on the trust she desperately seeks to earn from James.

Will Lauren and James be defeated in their attempts to turn passion into a life together?

Will James' challenging road to the A-list harden his ego and shut down his capacity for love?

Fans of Sylvia Day's Crossfire Series will become obsessed with this multi-layered plot that keeps readers on their toes to the very last sentence.
