How Women Manipulate Men (The Treachery of Women) Derrick Lin
Andy Johnson is an average man. He might not have gotten much excitement out of life but he has a steady job and is well respected. He has a wife and two kids. Andy has been satisfied with most of his life but he gets lingering doubts about how he could have done more for himself. However he doesn't take much action until his wife decides to leave him for another man because she thinks he is too dull. His life is suddenly torn apart by the departure of his wife who taunts him from afar about his inadequacies. She taunts him further by denying him the chance to see his kids. Andy spirals into a deep depression at this humiliation. He longs for a chance to get his pride back after this event.

Suddenly a new woman comes into his life by chance. She is young, beautiful, and seductive. She provides the instant turnaround that Andy had been dreaming of all his life. Andy forms a relationship that he could never imagine possible in his wildest dreams with her. He gets his pride back and feels a sense of purpose in his life. However he might have wished for more than he could handle as events begin to slowly spiral out of control around him. He is finally faced with a difficult decision he needs to make well outside of his comfort zone. How will he respond to this? A story of how women can play on the vulnerabilities that men have.
