When Angela Sparks catches her boyfriend cheating on her at a party, she is furious, betrayed. She vows revenge on the man who thinks so little of her.

Fate threw her and Michael Valentine, billionaire, not to mention her dad's boss, together once upon a time four years ago, in a sauna, hot, sweaty, and oh-so-close. But fate also threw an obstacle in her way, and the two of them never touched. Now twenty-five and a successful editor, she decides to rectify that.

It just so happens that Michael has invited himself along for the yearly father-daughter weekend trip to Lake Amethyst in California. This is the perfect chance for some good old fashioned revenge. But revenge is soon pushed aside for other, more intense emotions.

She has fantasized about this man for four years. No other man has ever compared. He is ripped, handsome, sexy as hell. Now they are alone, will her fantasies come true? Will her taboo ploy work?
