Yeshua a Personal Memoir of the Missing Years of Jesus

Stanislaw Kapuscinski (aka Stan I.S. Law)

Yeshua a Personal Memoir of the Missing Years of Jesus Stanislaw Kapuscinski (aka Stan I.S. Law) The novel is based on a statement by Edgar Cayce, the late American prophet, that Jesus had visited "Persia, India, Syria and Egypt to complete His education." The author has thoroughly researched early Indian and Middle-Eastern history. He illustrates conditions in which such an education might have taken place to prepare Jesus for his ministry. As the story unfolds, Satia, the son of a wealthy caravan owner. meets the 12-year-old Yeshua (Jesus) as the latter flees in rebellion from his Essene teachers. The two become fast friends and stay that way for the 18 years not covered in the Bible - the years between the finding of Jesus in the Temple and the beginning of his short ministry. In addition to several novels, Law has written other books under his own name, Stanislaw Kapuscinski, which cover esoteric topics such as the Key to Immortality, Visualization, Dictionary of Biblical Symbolism, Delusions - Pragmatic Realism, and three collections of Essays, Beyond Religion. This is a novel of ideas and philosophy. (Montreal Review of Books) One of the most enjoyable reads I have had this year. I congratulate you.. (Harvie D. Walford, Vancouver) After reading excerpts . . . not one copy of Yeshua was left in my store! (M. Smeele, Queen Bee Bookstore, BC.)
