It was supposed to be only one night . . . no strings, no follow up . . .

When emergency room physician Naomi Redford meets a handsome stranger at a bar, romance is the last thing on her mind. In town to give a speech at a medical conference, she is more concerned with impressing her colleagues and potential donors in order to secure funds for her hospital's cash-strapped emergency department. However, Naomi cannot resist the stranger's charm and allure and feels compelled to act on the powerful attraction between them.

But what should have been a one night stand turns out to have longer lasting ramifications. Naomi discovers her anonymous lover is the wealthy and powerful president of one of the largest pharmaceutical corporations in the world. And even more surprising, she learns he wants to turn their single night together into a lifetime commitment. But since she's been hurt before, Naomi is forced to ask herself whether she can trust the good-looking billionaire's prescription for her broken, cautious heart . . .
