N'oublie pas mon petit soulier (Grands Formats) (French Edition) Gabriel Katz
Benjamin Varenne, un beau gosse acteur raté ou plutôt qui n'a pas encore percé, enchaîne les castings foireux et les jobs alimentaires. Pendant la période des fêtes, il fait office de Père Noël au Printemps. Débarque une petite bombe aux longs cheveux, encadrée de deux gardes du corps. Elle minaude ouvertement et exige un selfie avec le Père Noël.
De fil en aiguille, le Père Noël se retrouve dans le lit de la belle, dans un luxueux appartement du XVIe, les gardes du corps sagement parqués dans le salon. Avant de s'endormir, la princesse le prévient : il doit mettre son réveil à 6 heures et disparaître. Manque de chance, le portable n'a plus de batterie. Et Benjamin émerge trop tard. Il tombe nez à nez avec une mamie revêche qui l'insulte dans une langue inconnue - genre pays de l'est- en le braquant avec un énorme pistolet. S'ensuit un règlement de comptes de gangsters et notre Père Noël, paniqué, n'a d'autre choix que de fuir. Car la mamie flingueuse est en fait la mère du petit ami officiel, un caïd albanais qui va tout faire pour se venger selon le principe albanais du kanun.
