Dating in NYC has never been easy for black women but she didn't expect that things would be this difficult. But there's no time for her to worry about that. She'll be spending the next six months halfway across the country in Denver recording her first album.

She struggles to adapt to life out west, until one day she locks eyes with a mysterious cowboy who turns out to be a billionaire who is very fond of black women.

She’s always been attracted to white men. Very attracted. But she’s never had the opportunity to be intimate with one. That’s about to change. After a taste of swirling Monica knows that her life will never be the same again.
