Zero Degrees of Separation Sandra Hatfield
Zero Degrees of Separation is about death and dying, focusing on the person who has passed and the relationships on the other side and between both realms. Having been with many people facing death, the concepts in this book are designed to help both the one facing end-of-life and their family and friends. The goal of this book is to open doors of awareness and to eliminate the fears surrounding death for everyone involved. Readers will begin to realize there is no separation when our loved one passes. Nor is there any separation between all beings on earth or on the other side. We are truly all ONE. The story is a journey of discovery in a beautiful place with many people assisting our main subject. She has entered a world filled with unearthly surprises with nature singing to her, traveling without a vehicle and creating what she needs. With the discovered oneness she communicates with animals. She is reunited with people who passed before her. The reader will find her experiences enlightening and exciting with avenues of discovery with the realization we are never alone and help is constantly available when we ask, no matter where we are. Join Christina into unknown realms as she embarks on an enlightening journey, guided by her two new friends. Her adventures and avenues of discovery are of self, friendship, relationships, love, and ultimately, life and death.
