What the Faith Really Means: A Simple Explanation Rev. Henry G. Graham
Protestant Minister Becomes Catholic! It happened over 100 years ago, and caused quite a stir. Even further, this convert became a Roman Catholic priest and eventually a bishop of the Church. What he, as a Catholic priest, upholds in this book reflects the Church's perennial doctrine, which is still under siege by Protestantism and, tragically, by too many members of the Church herself. Reading yesterday's most popular Protestant arguments against the whole of Divine Revelation in favor of "sola scriptura (the Bible only), we quickly realize that they are the same arguments as those of yesteryear. The good news is that the true Catholic answers will always remain the same, too.
