Colouring books are the new cool. They are reported to have therapeutic effects that are good for your mental state. It's even been claimed that they alleviate the symptoms of depression...But what if you like being depressed? What if you like feeling off colour? This satirical, illustrated book turns the current colouring - in craze on its head by inviting readers to colour the pages completely in black for alternative psychological 'benefits'. Whether you want to be melancholy or mirthless, morose or moody; this book allows you to enjoy all of the fun of the new colouring book zeitgeist without conforming to the mainstream or running the risk of accidentally acquiring a sunny disposition.
