Tanya had one mission in life: Get off of her assignment doing the society page and into a real story. That's why when she's told to cover the biggest and most elegant fundraiser of the year, she chooses to take it one step further and try to interview the main man behind the scenes.

Brant Wells is a top name in the society pages. An ex- navy seal who inherited a mass fortune, he's one of the most talked about elites in the city. Gorgeous, charismatic and smart; he knows what his goals are.

He's everything she'd never want-- including married.

But as the two begin to talk, Tanya learns that they are alike in their thinking and she may have pre-judged the man. Against the wishes of her best friend, Tanya begins a relationship with the man.

However, life shows that unexpected things can happen and nothing will be easy. Will Brant and Tanya survive the odds against them, or will she spend her life regretting the one bad choice she's made?
