Christmas Around the World Brenda Trunkhill
Christmas is celebrated around the world and children love to discover how their brothers and sisters in different lands celebrate Jesus' birth. Through stories and art, contemporary scenes portray Christmas preparations from a variety of cultures, including the United States, Africa, Latin America, Europe, Asia, and more. This book colorfully portrays the unique ways that people of different cultures prepare for the Savior's birth, what they sing, how they say Merry Christmas, and what they do to celebrate Christmas, including their traditions with decorations, festivities, and food.

Makes a great teaching tool! You may read this book with your child focusing on one region at a time. Follow your child's lead, pointing out different facts, noting details in the illustrations and photographs, and asking questions to stimulate discussion.
