'Amde' Hamilton has brought a wide range of artists-in-residency programs to schools across the nation. The core curriculum of these programs consists of his knowledge of oral tradition, including the formal structural elements of the spoken word, theater, and poetry. He has continuing partnerships with the University of Southern California (USC) Theater Department, the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) English and Arts Departments, and the Los Angeles County public schools (LAUSD). In collaboration with Arts Reach UCLA, Hamilton earned the Rand Corporation's Best Practice commendation in 1998 for the effectiveness of his residency programs as an intervention tool for high risk youth. In 1999 the federal Department of Juvenile Justice selected his work with Arts Reach as one of the best projects in the nation. He and his wife, Shirley, co-founded the Watts Prophets Community Education Association, Inc. which offers in-residency programs for children and young adults. Hamilton, is the third American to be ordained as a priest of the ancient 2000-year-old Ethiopian Orthodox Church, Amde founded the first Ethiopian Orthodox Church in California, St. Takla Haymanot, baptized the great singer Nina Simon and can be seen performing a spoken-word piece at the 1981 funeral service of Bob Marley in Jamaica in the 1982 film 'Land of Look Behind'. In 1994, the group appeared on the Red Hot Organization's compilation CD, 'Stolen Moments: Red Hot + Cool', appearing on a track titled "Apprehension" alongside Don Cherry. The album, meant to raise awareness of the AIDS epidemic in African-American society was named "Album of the Year" by Time magazine.
