Legacy Of Guilt Carol Zanetti
Legacy of Guilt is the dramatic story of a traumatized and frightened little girl who grows up to find understanding, redemption and eventual healing in an unusual and unexpected place: the sad faces and tortured lives of Amerasian children and young adults in South Korea. From a brownstone tenement in 1950s New York City along a cross-country saga toward a new life "Out West"; from a childhood of emotional, psychological and sexual abuse and an equally abusive and faith-shattering marriage; and from the back streets and dark alleyways of Seoul and Taegu, where the deserted children of foreign servicemen battle their own legacies of shame and of guilt, emerges a journey of self-discovery, wisdom, and an acceptance and appreciation of life that promises not only hope, but thankfulness and peace.
