Saving the American Miracle: The Destruction and Restoration of American Values Rep Tom Price MD, L. Gerald Davis
For over two centuries, the American people have been empowered by specific rights and guided by values and ideals that have not existed in any other country in the history of the world. Our citizens have forged an American character unlike any other national identity. America has been blessed to become the most creative, productive, strongest, and richest nation that has ever existed. Paradoxically, we are also the most generous and merciful nation in history. There has never been a country quite like the United States of America. Our nation is now at a critical juncture. Saving the American Miracle documents how our rights, freedoms, and values, and ultimately the American character we cherish, are under attack. Our country is moving inexorably toward totalitarianism. Our federal government is now monolithic, consumes vast resources, and controls or influences virtually every aspect of our lives. Saving the American Miracle offers a strategy which may be followed by citizens who reject the tyranny of neo-totalitarianism, and who hope for a restoration of traditional American values. We offer a "Promise for America".
