Crash: Book Two in the Mark IV Anna Series Danny B McGuire
Anna passed her Beta Test in the bitter cold of Russia. She sought refuge in America, but instead found No Escape. Now the world's only android that has human emotions is in a life and death struggle for survival after the Crash. Isolated hundreds of miles from civilization, Anna becomes entangled in a military dispute that will determine the destiny of an entire country. Forced to choose sides, she must infiltrate a secret facility and fulfill her captor's demands in only three days. Separated from her friends, she must turn to her deadliest enemy for any hope of escaping this impossible predicament. If Anna, and the android she would call…Sister, can't find a way to set aside their violent past, and work together, neither will make it out alive.
