Many people see Christianity as a list of rules they can't keep (and at times don't even want to keep). All of us are familiar with the battle of temptation and what it's like to give in to sin. So we wonder~ Is this all the Christian life was meant to be? Is there something we've missed? What are the keys to this intimate relationship with God I hear people talking about? This six--part series is a study of Romans 5-8 where the apostle Paul reveals the believer's new relationship to sin and the ensuing freedom we were re-created to experience.
