Ashley and Keith Marshall are determined to raise a happy family, despite the fact that her abusive father is still breathing down their necks. They can’t seem to move far enough to get away from his threats, and are glad when his own bad habits catch up with him. His death seems like a new lease on life for them, but then things start going horribly wrong.

The Marshall’s begin to worry about their sanity as they realize the stakes that they’re up against. Everyone has secrets. But their family secrets may tear them apart—the ones that Keith and Ashley keep from one another, and the one their daughter Brooke hides from them all.
