ROMANCE: Mail Order Bride: Ms. Vaughn (A Historical Western Inspirational Sweet Romance) (Christian Clean Fiction Book 1) Emily Heathers
In 1899, in Delamar, Nevada, Neal Powell is approached by local business man Stephen Mitchell and asked to be a Republican candidate in the upcoming election for governor.

Up until now, Neal has practiced law out of his own law office tackling petty cases up to the high profile ones.

When Neal accepts the opportunity to run, he's quickly blown away by how difficult the race is with so much time left until Election Day. Savvy, and political minded, Stephen suggests that Neal may be missing the family he'll need to sell a campaign running on family values.

Meanwhile in Georgia, Cecilia Vaughn has started shopping for a husband in the newspaper. The other two Vaughn girls are married or engaged, and if she doesn't snag a husband soon she's in for the challenge of maintaining the Vaughn family home all on her own.

When Cecilia receives her first response to her ad in the paper, from an established lawyer, she immediately wants to know more.

Cecilia and Neal try to take the state of Nevada for their own, while trying not to let the election drag them away from one another.
