Salutations, world. My name is Alexis Zhané and I am 21 years breathing. I was born in Columbus, Ohio on August 9th 1994. Which indeed makes me a fiery lioness. I moved to Charlotte, North Carolina around the age of fifteen. Like my mind, my life has been very complex. I was adopted at a few days old and from there it has been a wild ride. My upbringing was literally on the greenest side of the grass when speaking scenery wise. Though in school, I was the cry baby, the “mute,” the silent observer, the “stuck up” weirdo. I was often taunted for not being a loud miscreant, but my energy spoke volumes. I discovered I was divergent by the ways people would invade my vicinity just to get a peep out of me. I have learned to retain my thoughts and treasure the gold I was given that is silence. You’d be amazed at all you gain with a closed mouth and open eyes and ears. Now, living in Ohio again with my biological family I have been able to moisten my roots and learn more about myself and my position in this universe. I wrote my first poem when I was 14 years old and have been enlightened to continue ever since I found that niche. I feel things throughout this world deep in my soul. It is my desire, my passion to share my vision. I am here to help and to empathize. To give people alternate perspectives, and to allow people to step into my multi-tracked mind. I have a seat for everyone!
