GUNMAN J. Clisham
It’s early morning. You’re sitting at your desk - when you hear something. Sounds like a gunshot, but it couldn’t be that, could it? You hear it again, and then once more. Soon, an epic flood of screaming and panic takes over the office. Your co-worker – the quiet guy two cubicles down - is brutally gunning down the staff.

You tell yourself it isn’t real. You tell yourself a lot of things. But soon the gunman is before you – and you have a choice. You can either help him or suffer like the rest.

What do you do?
