Endurance: What It Is and How It Looks in a Believer s Life Dr. Jim Halla
There is no time that endurance is not needed. However, too often for the believer endurance is simply coping, accepting, tolerating, and just getting by. What a misconception of Paul s words in Romans 8:35-37. Believers are more than conquerors. In John s writings he emphasizes the true Nike and it is not Michael Jordan. The true conqueror is Christ the King and the believer s endurance is to be modeled after Him. Hurting people, sinned-against people, and sinning people need to know and apply Godly endurance. The joy of enduring God s way is the privilege, blessing, and responsibility for all of God s people no matter their age or spiritual maturity.
