I Am Still Here: Selected Early Poems Lacey Culbreth
There are people who live, and there are people who really LIVE. Growing up is a part of the process. From finding pieces of your childhood nestled in the crevices of newly reread books of old, to falling in love for the first time and thus experiencing your first real heartbreak, this compelling, coming-of-age collection of poems written by Lacey Culbreth travels the gamut of early emotional exploration. I Am Still Here speaks to anyone who has ever struggled, or may still be struggling, to find his or her place in this world. With verses detailing a wide range of experiences including loss, confusion, feeling out-of-place, the ecstasy and agony of new love, and the conflict of finding one's self, written in a thought-provoking and intriguing, cryptic fashion, this artistic compilation will draw you in and leave you leaking bits of soul.
