Four historic romances in one volume!

Catching a Rook: The handsome heir to a duke is caught in a web of his father's making, betrothed against his will to a German princess who does not want him any more than he wants her. Will he be able to find happiness without compromising his family's honour?

Lady Anthea's Choice: The young daughter of an earl is eligibly betrothed and planning a fashionable wedding to a Viscount, when she develops serious doubts about her fiancé's character. The older family members have no sympathy for what they deem missish qualms, and poor Anthea is threatened and coerced when she tries to back out of her engagment. Who can help her?

The Perils of Lord Pell: Travelling incognito, a Marquess befriends two young Englishwomen in Verona, and becomes embroiled in their dangerous situation. What can a chivalrous gentleman do but save them from a dire fate, even if that means an abrupt end to his bachelorhood?

Margaret's Turn: Margaret Bellairs returns to her childhood home in Derbyshire, now that her sister's brilliant marriage to Lord Pell has restored the family fortunes. Some neighbours do not want her back, while others want her too much ... and love arrives from an unexpected direction.
