One Magical Christmas Mary Kleiber
Based on true events and set to rhyme, One Magical Christmas is a very short story that is perfect for people of all ages. There is a mystery in a small Michigan town that revolves around a solid black building with white skeletons painted on the front. What is going on in the "skeleton shop" that could be more important than celebrating Christmas with the town? Why is the United States Military so interested in the shop just after the events of Dec 7, 1941. "One Magical Christmas" passes along the age old story that you can't always judge a book by its title - that even a small town can make a big difference when it matters. "One Magical Christmas" will leave you feeling good about life in America, and how important each one of us really can be.
