The Snow Report: Snow Series Volume 2 D W Church
During World War II, an unusual individual came forward to help save the day and shape the course of history. Although his name was only known to a few, his exploits and service to the nation has since become legendary. For without a doubt, this man of many faces, identities, and rare abilities was indeed extraordinary. “Joe Snow” is the fictional character portraying that amazing OSS agent. An agent, in fact, who never did receive attention or recognition for his services. You see, many of the unknown individuals in the intelligence network at that time were simply referred to as, “Joes.” That particular celebrated OSS agent and unsung “Joe” has become the inspiration for the Joe Snow Character in this work, and the Snow Series. In this non-stop action packed and suspenseful novel, Joe Snow has been asked to take on two of the most daring missions of the war. His amazing feats were filed and sealed, but have been recently opened and disclosed in “The Snow Report!” There is no question that this story will hold you spellbound with twists and turns throughout. “The Snow Report” will, in fact, leave you breathless by the end, and you’ll be begging for more.
