Lunch with Dr. Frankenstein (Archetype) (Volume 1) Mr. Richard R. Smith
Lunch with Dr. Frankenstein is Book 1 of a new series entitled "ARCHETYPE." The series explores a variety of ideas and themes regarding planet earth and human history. This first book starts off with an alien abduction with a twist and continues through a series of encounters involving ancient earth myths and archeological anomalies. The first book sets the stage for the series by using a variety of threads from modern science, astronomy, trans-humanism, mythology, extra terrestrial encounters, and ancient earth history. The story weaves these threads into a fabric illustrating a history of our planet and suggesting that we are not alone on planet earth and never have been alone! The effects of modern materialism has blinded us to the myriad of potential realities we have not seen before. Hopefully these stories can help us transcend the global cultural perspective that some refer to as "global amnesia," and provide an entertainment of new ideas about who we are in the cosmos.
