Stories My Father Told Me James Malony
In Stories From The Past My Father Told Me, you will find a General's view of leading a Division in Wwii, as well as many historical accounts of life in the Army before and during the war. These stories reflect a keen insight into the social and physical environment of the times. The stories represent a great collection of events that you will not find in history books, but are both fascinating and detailed. Col (Ret.) Chuck Giasson, a West Point graduate class of 1968, wrote: "The stories are written in a style that draws you in and makes you feel you are there." Ltg (Ret.) Larry Jordan, West Point class of 1968, added: "Simple yet eloquent stories of Army life gone by, told with a clarity and color rarely seen. Immerses the reader in the sounds, smells and feel of the setting for each tale. Some are amusing, others poignant, but all are entertaining and riveting."
